

ACVP 2026 Veterinary Pharmacy Conference

Exhibitor Shipping Information

To help ensure your exhibit materials arrive safely and are delivered directly to the exhibit hall, please review the following shipping instructions.

Shipping Your Materials to the Hotel

Exhibit materials may arrive no earlier than Monday, July 27, 2026 (three business days prior to the conference). Packages arriving before this date may be subject to storage or holding fees.

Please label every package as follows:

Hold for Emily Diaz – ACVP 2026 Exhibitor

Omni Providence Hotel
1 West Exchange Street
Providence, RI 02903

Important: Packages that are not labeled as shown above may be routed to another receiving location, which could result in delays or additional handling charges.

We strongly recommend keeping your shipping confirmation number(s) and tracking information with you when you travel. If a package cannot be located immediately, this information will help the hotel's receiving department locate it quickly.

Shipping Materials After the Conference

At the conclusion of the conference, exhibitors may leave their outbound packages on their exhibit tables.

Please ensure that:

- Every package has a pre-paid shipping label securely attached.
- You have scheduled a carrier pick-up in advance.
- We recommend scheduling pick-up for Monday, August 3, 2026.

The hotel's receiving department is closed on Sunday, and boxes must be moved from the exhibit hall to the loading dock before carriers can collect them. For this reason, Saturday pick-ups are not recommended.

Shipping Carrier Information

- UPS: Pick-ups are available only if scheduled in advance by the exhibitor.
- FedEx: Regular hotel pick-ups occur on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays; however, exhibitors should still schedule their own pick-up to ensure timely service.

Shipping Labels

The hotel does not provide shipping labels. Exhibitors are responsible for:

- Printing their own shipping labels.
- Pre-paying all shipping charges.
- Affixing labels securely to each outbound package before leaving it in the exhibit hall.

If you have questions regarding shipping or special delivery arrangements, please contact the ACVP Conference Team prior to shipping your materials.
